Xerox A4 devices and supplies will be available from IT services company, Cargil Solutions, who join its expanding network of UK resellers.

The Essex-based company will offer the complete line of A4 devices to its nationwide network of customers, primarily in the small to medium-sized business market. The product range includes Phaser and ColorQube printers, and WorkCentre and ColorQube multifunction printers (MFPs) that print, copy, fax and scan. It will also sell the Xerox Replacement Cartridge range and support services.

'Our customers consider us to be a specialist printing solutions provider,' said Danny Gilbranch, managing director, 'With the strength of the Xerox brand behind us, customers can select from a range of high-quality options, providing us with a fantastic opportunity to grow our business.'

'Cargil will be able to utilise Xerox's industry-leading technology to strengthen relationships with its existing customers, as well as to grow in new markets,' said Carlo Longhi, director and general manager, Xerox Europe 'Xerox is committed to growing its channel partner network significantly, and Cargil Solutions brings exactly the type of expertise and reach we are looking for.'
